Sheraton New Orleans Viewing Stands

January 6th, known as Twelfth Night, ushered in the beginning of Mardi Gras season. What a fun season it will be!

The Sheraton New Orleans is fortunate to have a number of Mardi Gras parades rolling directly in front of the hotel. Construction has begun on viewing stands, from which a limited number of guests will enjoy the parades.

Ticket prices for the viewing stands are listed below.

Date	Parade	Viewing Stand Opening	Ticket price for viewing stand access only	Ticket price for viewing stand access with beverages
February 23 rd	Krewe of Muses	6:30pm	35	50
February 24 th	Krewe of Morpheus	7pm	35	50
February 26 th	Krewe of Mid-City	12:00pm	25	40
February 27 th	Krewe of Orpheus	6:00pm	50	65
February 28 th Mardi Gras Day	Krewe of Rex	10:00am	25	45*

For each of the dates listed above, we will have the noted parade passing directly in front of the hotel and viewing stands. In addition to the noted parade, there may be a parade either preceding or following the noted parade passing on the other side of Canal St. (across the “neutral ground”, or “median” as the rest of the country calls it), meaning it would not roll immediately in front of the stands.

We offer two ticket options; the first is for viewing stand access only, the second is for viewing stand plus the drink package. This will include an open bar in Pelican Lobby Bar, located inside the Sheraton New Orleans. The package includes well mixed drinks, house wines, domestic beers and soft drinks to begin one hour after the start of the parade and ending 30 minutes after the passing of the parade. The drink package privileges are nontransferable.

On Mardi Gras Day, we will have a special package for the Krewe of Rex! The Mardi Gras Day package includes access to the breakfast buffet, bloody mary’s & mimosas in Roux Bistro, located on the 2nd floor of the Sheraton New Orleans. You will also enjoy front row seats in our viewing stands as Mardi Gras comes to an end.
